DEDICATION

In order that education may be the means for guiding students in the full cultivation and use of their intellects, talents, and abilities, and in order that it may not become stagnant and dogmatic, it is necessary to continually re-examine and evaluate the goals for which it strives and the way in which it strives for them. To achieve an intelligent and meaningful evaluation of these processes and goals of education, it becomes necessary for men with experience in various academic areas and with a sincere devotion to education to meet, discuss, and arrive at some kind of conclusion concerning an objective revision of the present educational system. It is to such a group of men, who are concerned with what should be the means and goals of education--the "Spec Committee" of Park College--that this yearbook is respectfully dedicated.

Members of the Committee
Dr. George M. Schurr, Chairman
Prof. A. Lyle Hanna
Dean Ellerd Hulbert
Dr. Young Pai
Dr. William Pivonka
Dr. Henry W. Radloff

FOREWORD

A Japanese "haiku" is a short, three-line, seventeen-syllable poem, very popular among all classes in Japan. Although it is short, it is by no means simple, for in this extremely rigid form, the poet attempts to create a mood or express an emotion through a mere sketch of it--often suggesting a sort of metaphor between two very different things. The statement is not a complete one; the reader is expected to help create the poem by bringing to it his own memories and emotions. These haiku are usually accompanied by a small sketch suggested by the poem. It is hoped that in the sketches and haiku presented on the division pages of this book, the reader will be able to see, with the help of his own memories and emotions, a slightly different view of Park College.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Miss Billie Thomas
Secretary to the President

In a quiet corner of Mackay in the Office of the President, source of many of the new plans for Park College. Here with the efficient aid of Miss Thomas and the able advice of Mr. Mohler, the President handles a continuous flow of visitors from all areas of the College's concern.

H. Milton Mohler
Consultant to the President

The Morrill Home

The President's Reception

Ellerd Hulbert, Acting Dean of the College.

In the newly completed office on the first floor of Mackay, the Academic and Student Affairs sections of the Administration are united to eliminate much of the earlier running up and down stairs. With the aid of the efficient office staff and the proximity of the typing pool, the officials in this office are able to correlate to a much higher degree their individual concerns with those of each other.

OFFICE OF THE DEANS

Hazel Bellamy, Secretary to the Dean of the College.

Barbara Dorsey, Director of Student Affairs.

Dr. Young Pai, Associate Dean of the College,
Dean of Student Affairs.

Dorothy Van Horn, Manager of Office of Academic and Student Affairs; Anne Kwo, Personnel Office Clerk.

Chalcea White, Dean of Women.

Anne Straus, Personnel Office Clerk.

Snyder, Associate Director of Admissions Diane Gibson, Associate Dean of Women

OFFICE OF ADMISSIONS

Harley Wyatt, Director of Admissions and Registrar.

The Admissions program at Park College is built upon the conviction that the college will grow and prosper because of its close relationship with its alumni and the Presbyterian Church. This Admissions program is approached on a national basis. The Admissions Office also correlates the activities of the many alumni that participate in the College Day program, as well as assuming responsibility for the accommodation of prospective students.

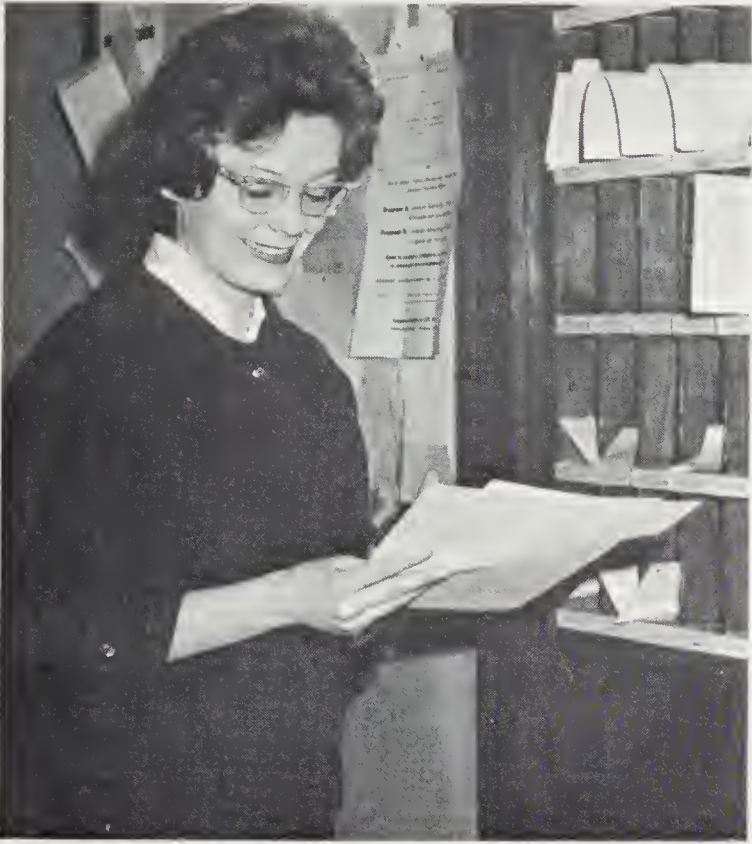

Carol Brenner, Assistant to the Director of Admissions; Student Assistants, Peggy Peck and Ed McMellen.

Al Dusing, Associate Director of Admissions.

REGISTRAR

With an almost entirely new staff, and many new mechanical devices, the Registrar's office has made the traditional mile-long line of Registration Day a thing of the past. Besides supervising this most trying time of the semester, the Registrar's office handles transcripts, grade-point averages and all of the many little problems that his schedule seem to present for a student.

Marilyn Magers, Assistant to the Registrar.

Bonnie Larson, Registrar's Clerk.

What do you mean you want to drop a course?

Charles Edwards, Executive Director of Public Affairs.

OFFICE OF ALUMNI AND PUBLIC RELATIONS

Mary Youngblood, Secretary to the Executive Director of Public Affairs.

The Public Affairs office is intent on building and maintaining general public interest in and support for Park College. They achieve this by preparing news releases, public announcements, and other promotional material to be placed directly in newspapers and periodicals. Obtaining information concerning campus visitors, speakers, and special programs, and promoting good community relations by inviting and entertaining on campus community leaders is also part of their program. The Public Affairs office is also in charge of directing conferences held on campus, and in charge of Park facilities when they are used by outside groups.

Student Assistants, Cheryl Wiley, Shirl Conner, and Diane Davis.

OFFICE OF THE BUSINESS MANAGER

Kenneth Hougland, Business Manager of the College.

Connie Vulliamy, Bursar.

The Business Office, under the supervision of Mr. Hougland and Miss Vulliamy, handles the many financial problems of the college, while performing such other necessary functions as distributing mail, keeping records, and processing the various purchase orders of different departments.

Janice Emond, Cashier, Rebecca Zemke, Asst. Bookkeeper, Ted Geist, Bookkeeper, Marjorie McAdam, Asst. Purchasing Agent, Sylvia Helms, Business Office Clerk.

OFFICE OF DEVELOPMENT

The objectives of the Development program are to gain increased acceptance for Park, to attract the type and number of students that the institution is best able to serve, and to gain financial support through annual gifts, through gifts for capital purposes, and through deferred gifts and bequests.

Charles Edwards, Executive Director of Public Affairs.

A DAY AT E.L.I.

Relatively new to our campus is the English Language Institute. Having just completed its second academic year after a very extensive expansion program made possible by a Ford Grant, the Institute has demonstrated remarkable progress. Compared to its beginning years, the student enrollment has more than tripled. In addition to this a number of courses have been added to the new curriculum. The Institute also boasts of a very modern language laboratory that has been a great asset to the new program.

During the first semester Park College was in the unique position of playing host to twelve African students. All of these students were on scholarship and represented ten of the new African countries. As well as showing outstanding abilities as students, these students demonstrated excellence in group sports as evidenced by one boy being named for the All American Soccer Team.

Today we will have a field trip.

This year the Institute had students from over twenty different countries. These students have added a great deal of meaning to the regular students at Park College who are desirous of obtaining that "something extra" in education.

We are looking forward to next year with the foreign students as Park College continues to increase in meaning to all.

--Harry W. Hoffman.

SENIORS

This year's Senior Class had forty-one graduating members, plus many members who plan to graduate in August. The officers were Mel Blads, President, Peggy Peck, Vice-President, and Sandy Mosiman, Secretary-Treasurer. The class chose as its Marshall, Dr. Arnold Frizzle. It is the last class at Park to witness such things as regular family style meals and required Wednesday evening Vespers Services. It is also the first class in a long time to have given a banquet to the previous Senior Class, an honor which was returned to them by this year's Junior Class. It has been a class made up of the "Old Park" kind of people and it has set a worthy example for the classes to follow.

JUNIORS

Far from being the wild freshmen who were "gonna give this place some spirit," who charged down to Parkville during Hell Week, and who outnumbered the upper-classmen, the Junior Class has settled down to a sedate (?) eighty-five. This is one of the "transition" classes at Park, experiencing some of the "Old Park," and hearing even more about it from the classes before them, and going through a year now of the "New Park." It seems to have survived the change while holding on to some of the old traditions which add to Park's meaning. It seems to be a class which understands the meaning of "spirit," as shown in its leadership in sports, student activities, and student-faculty relations. It has followed the precedent set by the classes before it at Park, and under the leadership of its new officers, John Garrett, President, Karen Garner, Vice-President, Fran Darragh, Secretary, and Sylvia DeFriend, Treasurer, it should move up to be a successful and united Senior Class.

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomore Class is the last class to go through Park under the old Curriculum. Even it has undergone some changes, such as the abolishment of the Freshman English Requirement. As a class, its only unifying experience so far has been Hell Week, whose rigors it admirably survived, producing some of the most effective goons and goonesses this year. With the potential of its leaders, it will undoubtedly prove to be a worthwhile part of Park College in the next two years.

FRESHMEN

This year's "Frosh" are a unique group, for they represent the first class to go through Park under the New Curriculum. They were greeted with scores of tests of all types and then embarked upon such formidable courses as Natural Science, Western Heritage, and Freshman Seminars. There were many tearful nights in Hawley and bitter words in Copley, but at the end of the year the "Frosh" pulled through admirably, showing the merits of the new program. As well as being a good group of guinea pigs, they showed a class spirit and unusual maturity in their response to Hell Week. In general, they appear to be what will become an asset to Park.

OUTSTANDING PROFESSOR

The Park College Student Award is presented each year to the faculty member whom the students feel is most outstanding in his teaching capacity, relations with the students, and general contribution to the College. The Outstanding Professor is chosen by an all student committee appointed by the Academic Review Committee. With genuine respect and affection, the Park College Student Award was presented this year to Dr. William Pivonka, head of the Department of Chemistry and, in all eyes, an outstanding professor.

You've GOTTA give it back, Jane!

The Benadls are a group of six boys who decided that they wanted to live together for the purpose of giving service to others. They had quite a bit of service to give themselves, however, in order to rehabilitate Dyer Apartments Five and Six where they were to live. Paneling, paint, curtains, and donated rugs and furniture completely changed the character of the place, which was displayed to the campus at an open house. The main service project this year was a Christmas party for the Home for the Mentally Retarded at Marshall, Mo., featuring Bruce Scott as Santa.

CHESTNUT

The Chesnut brotherhood has enjoyed a successful year; we began the year (which is a feat in itself) by giving a party for the Freshman Class. A most daring achievement in the dead of winter was the raid on Hawley at 4 a.m. at which time every toilet seat was "borrowed" in the space of seven minutes. Besides participating in intramural basketball and volleyball, our athletic prowess was displayed in the annual Chesnut-Nickel soccer game which ended in a 1-1 tie. The year's activities were completed (which is the greatest feat of all) with our yearly Chesnut picnic at Wyandotte County Lake.

Dearing Hall, dedicated in 1962, is now launching its second year on the Park College campus, built on the site where "Old Chesnut" once stood before gutted by flames. Dearing, named for the late Falkland H. Dearing of Bonne Terre, Mo., is guided by 'Mom' Sarah Fleming, assisted by Col. William Roberts. The year's activities included winning the Christmas Decoration Contest for the second time, raids, Open House, and the extra-cultural activity of TV gazing.

Hawley, formerly a freshman women's residence hall, this year housed a few upperclassmen, including the Penthouse. The first term officers were active in planning the Open House, which was the opening of the Christmas festivities at Park.

Meanwhile, under the thoughtful guidance of Mom Hawkins, aided by the six counselors, Hawley lived a busy social life with exchange parties and raids.

The second semester officers planned the annual house party, whose theme was "Younger than Springtime." Among the other activities was a party for an orphanage, planned and sponsored by the Penthouse group.

SHE STOOPS TO CONQUER

Roy Magers and Kevin Kirk

Roy Magers and Regina Stuewe

At the Inn.

SHE STOOPS TO CONQUER, a comedy by Oliver Goldsmith, was presented at Park during Harvest Festival, October 25, 26, and 27, and was directed by Mac Oltman. It was the second and last play which Goldsmith wrote and was considered a masterpiece from the beginning.

The play involves two main satires, one concerning the romance of Hastings and Neville, and one concerning the affected gentility of such people as Mrs. Hardcastle.

Leading roles were held by Regina Stuewe as Mrs. Hardcastle, Roy Magers as Mr. Hardcastle, Ed Ohl as Tony Lumpkin, Kevin Kirk as Kate Hardcastle, Diane Davis as Constance Neville, Ed Kagin as Marlowe, and Bob Gereau as Hastings.

He doesn't look like a thief.

Mr. Sullivan, Director, with Bob Gereau.

THIEVE'S CARNIVAL

Kevin Kirk, Janelle Sturgess,
Sue Birrell, Bob Bergman, John Sauget.

THIEVES' CARNIVAL, a comedy by Jean Anouilh, was presented by the Park College Players with John Sullivan as guest director. Music for the play was written by Roy Magers and taped by John Garrett.

The play concerns three pickpockets who become involved with the bored dowager, Lady Hurf, and who end up more deceived than deceiving. Love affairs between two of the pickpockets and Lady Hurf's two nieces, plus a misread carnival poster add to the complication of the plot.

Lead roles were held by Bob Gereau as Peterbono, Dick Peeke as Hector, Jim Ader as Gustave, Steve Bard as Lord Edgard, Kevin Kirk as Lady Hurf, Sue Birrell as Juliette, and Janelle Sturgess as Eva.

PARCHIE VARSITY

It's amazing what unprepossessing people one can love.

This year's Parchie Varsity, directed by Tom Gale, with Paul McBride, Musical Director used a tour of New York City as its theme. Those taking the tour found themselves at auditions for "Annie, Get Your Gun," highlighted by amazing vocalists, a Greek theatre with "Eddie Pusss," a Nightclub, with dancing, comedy, and folksinging, the Ladies Society for I Like Gilbert and Sullivan--Boston Branch, a Shakespearean play, starring "Mercy" Somerville, and the Metropolitan Opera who presented an unusual version of CARMEN, with Bob Barnes as the villian, Sharon Groh as the hypochondriac soprano, and Art Freeman and Gary Sorrell as the Bull. The Club used over three quarters of its members in the production in writing, sets, make-up, stage crew, publicity, acting, and the orchestra.

SOCCER

1962 CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

The 1962 Park soccer team had one of its most successful seasons. Park had a 7 win, 2 loss record and was selected to represent Area 1 in the NAIA National Soccer Tournament at Earlham College, Richmond, Indiana. Park took third place in the tournament and positions on the All Tournament team were awarded to Sinan Kunt and Desire Assa, with honorable mention to Bill Higginbotham.

High scorer this year was senior Mel Blades who broke the school record by scoring 12 goals. Team captain was Hal Henderson, a junior, coaches were Ara Zakaryan and Ed Nelson, student manager was Joel Givertz and student trainer, Dave Bromberg.

STUDENT COUNCIL

STUDENT COUNCIL: Cheryl Wiley, 1st Proportional Representative, Phil DeMoss, Vice President, Frank Henderson, President, Bob Kindrick (who installed new officers.) Not Pictured: Jan Epperson, 2nd Proportional Representative, Judy Cox, Secretary.

The Student Council was elected and took office in May. It met weekly on Monday night at 7 p.m. Some of the first items of business of the third term Council were: to draw up a budget, appoint a Library Committee, appoint Student Union Co-Chairmen, and move the Student Council to the west balcony. The Council room is being decorated this summer with new curtains, a better table, pictures, etc.

Because of the reduced size of the student body, the Council members felt that they themselves, working with two additional co-chairmen, could handle the Student Union activities for the summer.

Thus, instead of appointing a complete committee, the Council itself has served as the working group of the Student Union with Diane Davis and John Garrett serving as co-chairmen. Because of the many opportunities for entertainment and extra activities in the summer, the Council has devoted its main attention to Student Union parties and events. Several J.R. parties were given, with dancing, ping pong, chess games, bridge, etc. Over the Memorial Day weekend, the Student Union gave a Patio Pizza Party for all students. It was held on the Hawley Dorm Patio. Strong wind kept us constantly lighting the candles on the tables, and threatening rainclouds hovered above. But it didn't rain, and dancing and pizza were "enjoyed by all." Also on that weekend, the Student Union gave a picnic for the student body and some of the faculty members at President Morrill's house.

The Student Union sponsored a "raid" on Hawley by the men of Dearing. The girls, summoned from their rooms at 12:30 a.m., were escorted up to Dearing where refreshments and dancing were enjoyed on the Dearing Patio.

On June 22nd, the Student Union gave a Hawaiian Luau at the swimming pool and Brig. Students came in Hawaiian attire--mumuus and bermudas. After an hour of swimming and recreation in the gym, the Hawaiian type food was served in the Brig. Leila Kimura and Judy Eklund did a Hawaiian dance and later other students joined in the dancing with their various versions of old native dances--the twist, mashed potato, the pony, etc.

The Student Union also planned and sponsored several trips into KC for the student body and interested faculty and staff members. They went to see "Showboat" at the Starlight Theatre, to see the KC "A"'s play baseball, and to the Swope Park Zoo (at the request of several students who had a great desire to see the pregnant hippopotamus.)

Join these five young men in their climb to the top...

They are BMA men. Five college graduates writing five separate success stories at BMA.

Why did they decide on a career in life and health insurance at BMA? Many reasons. Read some of the important ones in the right hand column.

Call BMA soon for an interview—GRand 1-3000. Join these five and the other young BMA men. Write your own success story at BMA.

BUSINESS MEN'S ASSURANCE
Company of America

PRESENT HOME OFFICE: BMA Building, Kansas City 41, Missouri

1. BMA helps its young people grow and advance by offering insurance and management training programs and encouraging part-time study on the college graduate level.

2. BMA is growing fast. Now it is among the top 4 per cent in life insurance in force of all U. S. life companies. Lots of room for young men to grow.

3. BMA is looking for young men who are looking for success, both in Home Office and field sales capacities.

4. The average 1962 earnings of BMA's field force of 1100 sales representatives was $8,564, ranking high in the life and health insurance industry.

5. BMA offers a wide choice of career opportunities—in selling, management, actuarial science, underwriting, accounting, electronic computer programming, mathematics, policy service, personnel and many others.

6. BMA encourages its young people to express their ideas, to reach out for new experiences.

7. BMA employee benefits include group life and health insurance, as well as liberal vacation and retirement plans. BMA's business is protecting people's incomes, so it's natural to have generous security plans for BMA employees.

8. In mid-1963 BMA will move into its specially designed 19-story Home Office building, The BMA Tower of Protection, on Signal Hill (31st Street and Southwest Trafficway, Kansas City, Missouri).
